

SIAS – SOCIETÀ INIZIATIVE AUTOSTRADALI E SERVIZI S.p.A.

Tortona, 11 february 2008

PRESS RELEASE

Autostrada Asti-Cuneo S.p.A.: underwritten the framework of the concession agreement for the construction and the management of the new motorway link.

Following the registration by the Italian Audit Court and the formal communication made by ANAS, today become effective the concession agreement for the construction and the management of the “Asti-Cuneo” motorway.

Based on the above agreement, the concession expires within 23 years and 6 months from the date of completion of the motorway.

The infrastructure, managed by Autostrada Asti-Cuneo S.p.A. (controlled for a 65% by the SIAS Group, through SALT S.p.A. and Itinera S.p.A. and - for the remaining 45% - by ANAS S.p.A.), has an extension of 90,5 km, (inclusive of the links to Asti East and Asti West toll stations and the Cuneo bypass) and is made up of two logs: the highway connection between Massimini and Cuneo, totalling 32 km and the highway connections between Asti and Marene, totalling 58,5 km.

The Chairman
Bruno Binasco
